Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

LEGHORN, December 16.

THEY write from Corfica, that two English Noblemen who came there, after having spoken with General Paoli, returned to Italy in a ship under French colours. The Corficans have taken into their pay 5000 regular troops, in order to enable them to oppose the 40 battalions of French troops that are to go to Corfica in the spring. Notwithstanding these reinforcements, the Corficans are more than ever determined to spend the last drop of their blood in defence of their liberty.

Bastia, Dec. 4. A few days ago arrived here in a French ship many foreign workmen, with utensils to erect barracks for the French troops in this island. The Corfrican affairs bear the appearance of regaining a very favourable position, as the remonstrances of many foreign powers to the Court of France, have had a good effect.

Leghorn, Dec. 13. According to the last advices from the island of Corfica, every thing there is in a state of profound peace; but no exchange of prisoners has yet been made. General Paoli continues to take every measure that can enable him to resist the attacks which the French may make in the spring.

From the Frontiers of Poland, Dec. 22. They write from Warsaw, that Prince Repnin received a courier the day before yesterday, with advice, that Major Drewitz, with 300 men, having pursued Prince Sulkowski, who commanded 1000, had obliged him to fly towards Silesia, where he fell into the hands of the Prussians, to whom he surrendered prisoner of war, with 600 of his men; who have most of them enlisted into the service of the King of Prussia.

Jan. 10. The Friends Goodwill, Lott, from North-Carolina to London, is put into Cambletown in distress, having lost all her sails, and all the people, excepting the master and two men, the rest being washed overboard in bad weather.

A young couple went to a church in Wiltshire on Monday last to be married; but the parson not coming till above an hour after the appointed time, the young lady changed her mind, and would not be married; on which the lover, who is an attorney, has brought his action against the parson, for the loss of his wife and fortune.

A letter from Warsaw, dated Dec. 21, says, "It is assured that Prince Repnin has formerly declared at Court, that the Emperors of Russia is resolved, not only to fulfil the engagements she has entered into for maintaining the new constitutions of the Republic, but likewise to take the necessary steps for the perfect security of the King, as well as for this city, and for all the Magnates, who chuse to reside here during the war."

Extract of a Letter from Stockholm, Dec. 20.

"Some difference having arisen between the Senate and the College of the Chamber, the Senate had resolved on the establishment of an extraordinary tribunal to take cognizance of, and to decide them. Of which the King being informed, he went to the Senate on the 12th of this month, declared his disapprobation of that measure, proposed the holding an Assembly of the States, and caused a writing to be entered in the Registers of the Senate in his presence, at the end of which his Majesty declared, that if the College continued to oppose the Convention of the States, he would abdicate the Crown.

"As soon as the King had retired, the Senate took into consideration his Majesty's declaration. At the close of their deliberations, the Senators Friesendorff, and de Ribbing, went to Court, and earnestly prayed the King that he would desist from his demand; but his Majesty declared he would not, and desired that the Senate might give him a categorical answer. An hour after, six other Senators went and intreated the King to grant the Senate a delay of four days. His Majesty then losing all patience, told them, that he considered their request of a delay, as a refusal; that he renounced the Government till the States should be assembled; that he forbade the dispatching the least business in his name; and that he insisted the Seals should be delivered to him.

"The next day the King sent the Prince Royal to the respective Colleges, there to read the following declaration:— "We order by these presents our dear son, the Prince Royal, to notify, to the Colleges of the State, that judging it necessary to convolve the States of the kingdom, we have presumed that the Senate would have consented thereto this day, which not being done, we can consider this silence only as a refusal; consequently, we find ourselves under the necessity of abdicating the Regency, until the said States shall be convoked."

Done at Stockholm, Dec. 13, 1768.

(Signed) ADOLPHUS FREDERICK.

"The Prince went first to the College of the Chancery, and afterwards to some others, where he read the above order; and demanded the Seals in the first-mentioned College, but the keeper of them being absent, the request of his Royal Highness could not be complied with. However, the Prince signified to the Members of that College, that they should be responsible to his Majesty and the States, if they continued to make use of them.

"In about three hours after, affairs took a happy turn, the King resumed the Crown and the Sceptre, and the Assembly of the Diet is fixed for the 17th of March."

Letters from Leghorn say, that General Paoli had lately received a considerable sum of money, which it was reported his Agents had successfully negotiated in a certain state, to enable the Corficans to carry on the war vigorously against France.

It is imagined that the example of the Freeholders of the county of Middlesex, who are to meet on Thursday next, in order to consider of proper instructions to be given by them to their Representatives in Parliament, will be followed by the Electors of many other counties and boroughs.

Jan. 14. At a very numerous and respectable meeting of the Freeholders of the county of Middlesex, held yesterday at the Mile-End Assembly-room, the following instructions were unanimously agreed to, and directed to be transmitted to the Knights of the Shire.

To JOHN WILKES, Esq; and JOHN GLYNN, Esq; Knights of the Shire for the County of Middlesex.

GENTLEMEN,

"We the Freeholders of the county of Middlesex, direct and instruct you our Representatives in Parliament,

"1. To endeavour to continue to us, and to confirm our old constitutional, and only rightful trial—by Jury.

"2. To promote a strict parliamentary inquiry into the mility in St. George's-fields, on Tuesday, the 10th of May last.

"3. To promote a like inquiry into the riot and murders committed at Brentford, on the 8th of December last.

"4. To examine into the administration of justice in this county; particularly into the present state of the Commission of the Peace.

"5. And, as far as in your power, to promote an inquiry into the rights of the public to the territorial revenue arising from the conquests in India."

John Sawbridge, Esq; Member of Parliament for Hithe, in Kent, was, by the general voice, placed in the chair.

The instructions relating to the trial by jury, was moved by the Rev. Mr. Horne.

The three instructions relative to inquiries into the transactions of St. George's-fields, the riot at Brentford, and the Commission of the Peace, were moved by James Adair, Esq; And, The inquiry relative to the territorial revenue of the conquests in India, was proposed by Benjamin Hayes, Esquire.

The three Gentlemen above mentioned were appointed to convey these instructions to the Knights of the Shire, and desired to repeat to them the reasons (as well those advanced by themselves as by others in the course of the debate) and the motives which induced the county to form such instructions at present.

We hear that his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland will sail again for the Mediterranean early in the spring, in the Venus frigate, of which his Royal Highness is Commander; and the several men of war destined for that nation, and fitting out for sea.

The postscript of a letter from an English Gentleman in Paris says, "It is the admiration of all those, who dare conjecture on government affairs here, what the court can mean by sending such a paltry force against Corfica. They account for it only on two principles, that they either do it to cover some deep-laid design (or, to use their own phrase, to amuse) or else they have stumbled upon that wretched system of politics we adopted the beginning of the last war in regard to America; which gave rise to that just remark, made by the then celebrated Mr. Pitt,—"That the conduct of the Ministry put him in mind of Dolly's Chop-house—where you were served chop after chop, for the benefit to eat them hot."

Soon after an English Nobleman, of very great fortune, arrived at Rome, his Holiness the Pope sent him a congratulatory compliment in a letter of his own hand-writing, assuring his Lordship, that during his residence there, he should receive the same marks of distinction, as should be paid to any German Prince.

It is said an Officer refused drawing the other day on a challenge, alleging that he bought in to live quietly, and not to fight privately or publicly, otherwise he should not have paid such a large price for his commission.

We hear, a hundred gentlemen have actually entered into a subscription of twelve guineas each, to be renewed annually, for the benefit of a certain patriot.

It is reported, as a fact, that in the West-India Islands, and a part of America, the sum of 9000 l. has been raised by subscription, as a present to Mr. Wilkes, "to enable him the better to preserve his patriotism and independency."

The following is the Conclusion of the Declaration which the King of Sweden made to the Senate on the 12th ult. when he abdicated the Crown.

"To the right of the nation to tax itself, I would have the greatest attention paid, because I am engaged by oath to let my subjects enjoy their liberties and privileges without any restriction.

"Nevertheless, I pretend not to render the States culpable of that imposition [the lowering the course of exchange to 42 marks, a tax fixed by law, as mentioned, in our last] equally imprudent, and contrary to the laws; but from whatever cause it may have arisen, the right of the nation requires that it should judge for itself, whether it would accept the tax; that is to say, the States alone being vested with power as to this point, ought to be convoked. Consequently I insist again, that they assemble as soon as possible.

"If it will happen, that contrary to my expectation they oppose my will, I am obliged to declare to them, in such a case, that I discharge myself of the weight of government, which is become quite insupportable to me by the grievous affliction which the unhappy situation of the necessitous occasions me, and the daily exhausting of the strength of the kingdom, reserving to myself, when the States, my faithful Counsellors, shall assemble on my account, to acquaint them further with all the reasons which have induced me not to concern myself, 'til that time, with the government of the kingdom. I also seriously forbid my name being made use of during this interval, in any conclusion of the Chamber of Council.

(Signed) ADOLPHUS FREDERICK."

By letters from Stockholm, dated the 29th ult. every thing was very quiet in that Capital; but that some of the great Officers had resigned their posts.

Letters from Warsaw of Dec. 21, advise, that the troubles which lately desolated Great Poland, are diminished since the Prussian troops have patrolled there.

We hear that Commodore Palliser will soon be appointed to the Command of his Majesty's Squadron in the Mediterranean.

Extraordinary ANECDOTE.

DURING the troubles in the reign of Charles I. a country girl came to London in search of a place as a servant maid; but not succeeding, she applied herself to carry out beer from a brew-house, and was one of those then called Tub-women. The brewer observing a well-looking girl in this low occupation, took her into his family as a servant, and after a while married her; but he died while she was yet a young woman, and left her a large fortune.---The business of the brew-ery was dropped, and the young widow was recommended to Mr. Hyde, as a Gentleman of skill in the law, to settle her husband's affairs. Hyde (who was afterwards the great Earl of Clarendon) finding the widow's fortune very considerable, married her: Of this marriage there was no other issue than a daughter, who was afterwards the wife of James II. and mother of Mary and Anne, Queens of England.

Letters from Vienna, dated Dec. 10, say, "Lord Stormont, the British Ambassador, had a few days ago a long conference with the Ministers of their Imperial and Royal Majesties, on the subject of some dispatches he had just received from his Court. It seems that many Powers endeavour to extinguish the flames of war between Russia and the Porte, for fear that the conflagration should become more general, and extend too far."

Extract of a Letter from Berlin, Dec. 20.

"The Director of the Police has published an edict, by order of the King, forbidding the game of hazard, by making the player liable to pay a fine from 100 to 300 ducats, or to suffer imprisonment in one of the fortresses. Several other games are also forbid, as Basset, Pharaoh, Lanquet, &c. All keepers of coffee-houses, taverns, and alehouses, are made liable to the same penalties, if they suffer these games to be played in their houses."

An ancient Farmer, who came to town lately on some business relative to the Cumberland elections, called on Mr. Wilkes, and told him, that though he was a stranger to him, he could not forbear waiting on him, to express his regard for his patriotic spirit, and begged of him, as a small testimony of his gratitude, that he would accept of 10l. which he brought up with him; but Mr. Wilkes politely refused; and the Farmer reluctantly carried it away with him; declaring at the same time, that he would consider him handsomely in his will.

Friday last Captain Christopher Brooks, of the Brig Norton, arrived here from Jamaica, who informs us, That he was bound from Dominico for this Port, but to Leeward of St. Eustatia, his People mutinied, and forcibly carried his Vessel for St. Croix, off which Place he fortunately overcame them, so that they only got away with his Boat, and about 25 Johnnies; he was then obliged to make the best of his Way for Jamaica, in order to get a Boat, and Hands sufficient to proceed on his intended Voyage.

We are authorized to assure the Public, that the Body of Merchants in Bristol, truly sensible of the Baseness and Injustice of the Proceedings and Sentence in the Case of the Ship A---, are determined to pursue such Measures to make a full and proper Representation of the whole of that iniquitous Affair, as will probably bring about some Regulations in the Proceedings of American Courts of Vice Admiralty, as well as Limitations of that exorbitant Power lately vested in a Sole Judge.---Events more ardently wished for by the particular Owners of that Vessel, than any pecuniary Satisfaction or other Gratification to themselves.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London, to his friend in Virginia, dated November 5, 1768.

"Till the Parliament meets, nothing can be certainly known about American affairs, but they have strong friends in it; and they may be satisfied, if the colonies are but steady and united, nothing here can hurt them. I think it is incumbent on every American to forbid his goods being purchased here of Mauduit, and Crowley, the ironmongers. They are your most violent enemies in this town, and do every thing they can against you. I think they should suffer for their imprudence."

Extract of another letter from a gentleman in London, to his friend in Virginia, dated November 9.

"During the debate in the House of Commons, on the King's Speech, doctrines were mentioned that would set America in flames, if they were admitted, by N---th, C---r---l, and B---n. These were to govern America by military force, seize Otis (whose name was frequently mentioned) and all the leading men at Boston, and every where else, who opposed their measures, bring them here, and hang them. The Ministry are violent against us, but they will meet with very violent Opposition. The sense of the House, which was uncommonly full, seemed to me to be this: They will receive American complaints, amend or take away the force of the late revenue law, punish Boston, reward that devil B---n, and insist on the right of Taxation, which you must acknowledge. How this will go down with you, I know not; but I think all America should be swallowed up in an earthquake, if they do not stand by Boston; for if that fall, they will in a short time; they must share the same fate. And let this be the American political creed, that a firm, steady and determined union, and constitutional opposition, will be the surest safeguard from any violence from hence. The affair of Boston being totally ministerial, when it comes to be fully debated, and all the papers are before the House, it is very possible the Ministry may be overfed; for they have only the Bedford landed interest for them; and I think they have not the confidence of the mercantile interest."

B O S T O N, March 9.

A Gentleman at Marblehead writes his Friend in Boston as follows.---"By the Packet I received a Letter from my Friends in London, dated 10th of December, as also one from the Master of my Ship, who had discharged his Freight there,---advising me there was no Freight for Boston, nor did they expect any, there being no Orders on hand for shipping any Goods, so expect my own Hemp and Duck, for the Use of the Fishery only, and 50 Chaldrons Sea-Coal for Ballast.---They say all Trade is at a Stand, and no Prospect of mending,---what they are to do with the Ships at Home they know not.---It now looks as though the Boston Gentlemen were in earnest."

By Advice received per the Lord-Hyde Packet we learn, That the Friends of America frequently met to consult the properest Measures for the Relief of the Colonies: That some of the Ministry had declared they were against severe Measures.---That as the Petition of the Committee of Convention in Boston, was not received by the Secretary of State, it was delivered in with the other American Papers to the Committee, who were arranging all the Papers to lay before the Parliament:---That there were some in both Houses who were Advocates for the Colonies:---That it was thought by some the Acts would not be repealed.---That our Friends thought the People here acted very prudently in their agreeing not to use any Tea, and in going into other Measures of Oeconomy, and promoting Manufactures; and advise to a steady and persevering Pursuit to these Measures, as the only Means to convince the Ministry of the Impolicy of the late Act.

We have advice from Turk's Island, that on the 25th of January, Captain Cartin, in a Sloop from Calco-Bay, towed in there the Wreck of a Brig from Piscataqua, Edmund Coffin late Master, who was foundered at Sea the 15th of December, as appeared by a Writing in Chalk in the Cabin; the People are supposed to have been taken up by some other Vessel, as she was stripped of almost every Thing but the Lumber in the Hold.

Monday the 27th ult. the Post-Rider with the Mails for Rhode-Island, New-London, New-York, Philadelphia, &c. &c. was assaulted on Boston-Neck, just after Sun-set, as he was setting out for his journey, by 4 or 5 Persons, who appeared dressed as Officers; one of them took his Sword from his Belt, and with the small End in his Hand, struck the Rider on the Head with the Hilt, that it forced the Sword out of the Scabbard, and went to a considerable Distance.---The Rider recovering himself, informed them that he was on his Majesty's Service, whereupon they all ran off. The Rider would have returned to Town, but as there had been Stoppages lately, occasioned by the bad Travelling, he was determined not to be the Means of the Mails returning out of Season; he went on, and at the first Stages had his Head bathed, which was considerably swelled by the Blow; he reached Newport on Wednesday, from whence he employed another Person to perform for him the last Week.

Captain Lindsay, of the Halifax Packet, writes of the 7th of December, "That he had Orders to be in Readiness to sail at an Hour's Warning." And a Letter from a Gentleman in London, dated December 11th, says, "Captain Lindsay, in the Halifax Packet, sailed the 9th Instant, with Dispatches for Boston." This Vessel may be hourly expected.

Some Time since, a Woman that lived in good Fashion, in the Town of Sunderland, in the Western Part of this Province, was endowed with such a noble Spirit of Freedom, Liberty and Frugality, that she entirely laid aside all foreign Goods, especially Cloths of a foreign Manufacture, and clothed herself in Cloth of her own Manufacturing from Head to Toe.---But in searching her House she found some Fragments of a foreign Manufacture, and that there might be nothing lost, she composed herself a Petticoat out of them, and the Pieces were so small, that it took 45 Pieces for the Outside, and 92 for the Inside, quilted them together, and wears the same to this Day.

There are Advices in Town, that three of the four Regiments coming out this Spring to America, are the 56th, Colonel Welch, the 61st, Major General Grey, and 63d, Col. Hotham's.

By Orders from Home, the Regiments quartered in Town, are to encamp on the Common, as soon as the Weather permits. The 1st Regiment is arrived at Charlestown, S. Carolina, from St. Augustine, and another Regiment is also expected there.---A Carolina Gazette says,---"All the Troops arrived here are lodged in the Barracks, and none of them come into Town without special Leave of their Officers."

A Letter from a Member of Parliament, to a Gentleman in this Town mentions, that the American Affairs had not been spoke of in the House since the Debate on the King's Speech, the first Day of their Meeting.

From the PROVIDENCE GAZETTE of March 4.

Being a Spectator at the Sitting of the Assembly at Providence, I had an Opportunity of hearing the public Letters read. Among others, one in particular excited my Curiosity; I therefore took it down in Characters, from which I wrote the Whole at large, and having heard the same read a second Time, you may be assured the following is a correct Copy. As it is of a pretty extraordinary Nature, you are requested to insert it in your useful Paper.

Whitehall, September 2, 1768.

GENTLEMEN,

THE King having observed that the Governors of his Colonies have, upon several Occasions, taken upon them to communicate to their Councils and Assemblies, either the Whole, or Parts of Letters which they have received from his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; I have it in Command from his Majesty to signify to you, that it is his Majesty's Pleasure, that you do not, upon any Pretence whatever, communicate to the Assembly any Copies or Extracts of such Letters as you shall receive from his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State, unless you have his Majesty's particular Directions for so doing. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

HILLSBOROUGH.

Governor and Company of the Colony of Rhode-Island.

A C A R D.

THE Colonists present their Compliments to L---d H---h, to whose Care the A---n Department has been committed, and humbly request, that before his L---p proceeds to write any more C---ul-r L---s, he would make himself acquainted with the Constitution of the Colonies. His L---p's Ignorance, as appears by some of his m---s---l Mandates, has rendered him manifestly ridiculous; for Instance, in one of his C---ul-r L---s, his L---p gave Orders to the G---r of P---n---va---a, that in case the Assembly of that Province did not act conformably to his Pleasure, immediately to dissolve them; whereas it is an inherent Privilege of that House to fit on their own Adjournments, and not in the Power of any G---r to dissolve them. Other Instances might be produced, to shew that his L---p has most egregiously blundered; these will appear evident to himself, when his L---p becomes acquainted with the Duties of his Office; but should any other C---ul-r L---s from his L---p be circulated, with unconstitutional Orders to the American G---s, the Colonists will "treat them with the Contempt they deserve."

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman in London, to another in this Town, dated January 4, 1769.

"In short, it is impossible for you on the other Side of the Water, to judge of the Opinion the People in this Country have of America.---There is a Number of Vessels here put up for Freight for Boston, New-York, Philadelphia, &c. and not one Merchant in this City dares comply with their Orders, unless the Act of Parliament, imposing Duties on America, be repealed; which there is not the least Prospect of at present.---Many Ships are ordered to be sold, and others to return in Ballast. I have nothing new to tell you, only that a Report prevails, that a Rupture between England and France is soon expected."

On Monday last, according to Desire, there was a Meeting at the House of Bolton and Sigel, of the Subscribers to the Agreement for Non-importation of Goods, when, we hear, a Committee was appointed to inquire into and inspect all European Importations, in order to a strict Compliance with the said Agreement, and also to correspond with the other Colonies.

By our late Accounts from South-Carolina, we have Reason to think they will very soon come into a similar Agreement, and also, not to import, or purchase one imported Slave.

By the Antigua News Papers, we have a Relation of a barbarous Murder, committed at that Island, on the 22d of January last, on two Seamen; the Substance of which is as follows.---On the Evening of that Day, one Robert Dunbar, returning home from a public House, was met near the Door of his Lodgings, by one Butler, a Corporal in the Army, with the Piquet Guard; who after some Words assaulted Dunbar, whereupon a Scuffle ensued between him and Butler in the Street; this occasioned several Seamen and others to gather round to see what was the Matter; and Butler observing the Crowd, whilst he was down, suddenly cried out to the Guard, and ordered them to prime, load and fire among the thickest of them, which being immediately obeyed, two of the Seamen were shot dead upon the Spot. The Guards were soon after taken, and delivered to the Civil Power, to be dealt with according to Law.---But it is said, the Seamen, in general there, are much exasperated, and threaten Revenge against the Soldiers: However, it was hoped all illegal Extremities would be prevented. Dunbar in the Scuffle also got wounded.

March 20.

We are greatly obliged to the Gentleman who favoured us with the following.

15 December, 1768.

1. Resolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, That the Votes, Resolutions and Proceedings of the House of Representatives of Massachusetts-Bay, in the Months of January and February last, respecting several late Acts of Parliament, so far as the said Votes, Resolutions and Proceedings, do import a Denial of, or do draw into Question the Power and Authority of his Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, to make Laws and Statutes, of sufficient Force and Validity, to bind the Colonies and People of America, Subjects to the Crown of Great-Britain, in all Cases whatsoever, are illegal, unconstitutional, and derogatory of the Rights of the Crown and Parliament of Great-Britain.

2. Resolved, That the Resolutions of the said House of Representatives of the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, in January last, to write Letters to the several Houses of Representatives of the British Colonies on the Continent, desiring them to join with the said House of Representatives of the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, in Petitions, which do deny, or draw into Question the Right of Parliament, to impose Duties and Taxes upon his Majesty's Subjects in America, and in Pursuance of the said Resolutions, the writing such Letters, in which certain late Acts of Parliament, imposing Duties and Taxes, are stated to be Infringements of the Rights of his Majesty's Subjects of the said Province, are Proceedings of a most unwarrantable and dangerous Nature, calculated to inflame the Minds of his Majesty's Subjects in the other Colonies, tending to create unlawful Combinations, repugnant to the Laws of Great-Britain, and subversive of the Constitution.

3. Resolved, That it appears, that the Town of Boston, in the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, has, for some time past, been in a State of great Disorder and Confusion; and that the Peace of the said Town, has at several Times been disturbed by Riots and Tumults of a dangerous Nature, in which the Officers of his Majesty's Revenue there, have been obstructed by Acts of Violence in the Execution of the Laws, and their Lives endangered.

4. Resolved, That it appears, that the ordinary civil Magistrates, in the said Town of Boston, did not exert their Authority for suppressing the said Riots and Tumults.

5. Resolved, That in these Circumstances of the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, and of the Town of Boston, the Preservation of the Public Peace, and the due Execution of the Laws, became impracticable, without the Aid of a Military Force to support and protect the Civil Magistrates, and the Officers of his Majesty's Revenue.

6. Resolved, That the Declarations, Resolutions and Proceedings in the Town Meetings at Boston, on the 14th of June, and 19th of September, were illegal, unconstitutional, and calculated to excite Sedition and Insurrection in his Majesty's Province of Massachusetts-Bay.

7. Resolved, That the Appointment of the Town Meeting on the 12th of September, of a Convention to be held in the Town of Boston on the 22d of that Month, to consist of Deputies from the several Towns and Districts in the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, and the issuing a Precept by the Select Men of the Town of Boston, to each of the said Towns and Districts, for the Election of such Deputies, were Proceedings subversive of his Majesty's Government, and evidently manifesting a Design in the Inhabitants of the said Town of Boston, to usurp a new and unconstitutional Authority, independent of the Crown of Great-Britain.

8. Resolved, That the Elections by several Towns and Districts in the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, of Deputies to fit in the said Convention, and the Meeting of such Convention in Consequence thereof, were daring Insults offered to his Majesty's Authority, and audacious Usurpation of the Powers of Government.

9. Resolved, That an humble Address be presented to his Majesty, to return his Majesty Thanks for the Communication which he has been graciously pleased to make to his Parliament, of several Papers relative to public Transactions in his Majesty's Province of Massachusetts-Bay.---To express our sincere Satisfaction, in the Measures which his Majesty has pursued for supporting the Constitution, and inducing a due Obedience to the Authority of the Legislature: To give his Majesty the strongest Assurances, that his Parliament will effectually stand by and support his Majesty in such further Measures as may be found necessary, to maintain the Civil Magistrates in a due Execution of the Laws within his Majesty's Province of Massachusetts-Bay.

And as we conceive, that nothing can be more immediately necessary, either for the Maintenance of his Majesty's Authority in the said Province, or for guarding his Majesty's Subjects therein, from being further deluded by the Arts of wicked and designing Men, than to proceed in the most speedy and effectual Manner, for bringing to condign Punishment the chief Authors and Instigators of the late Disorders, to beseech his Majesty, that he will be graciously pleased to direct his Majesty's Governor of Massachusetts-Bay, to take the most effectual Methods for procuring the fullest Informations that can be obtained, touching all Treasons, and Misprisions of Treasons, committed within the Government since the 30th of December last, and to transmit the same, together with the Names of the Persons, who were most active in Commission of such Offences, to one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, in order that his Majesty may issue a special Commission for enquiring of, hearing and determining the said Offences within this Realm, pursuant to the Provision of the Statute of the 35th Year of the Reign of King Henry the Eighth, if his Majesty shall, upon receiving said Information, see sufficient Ground for such a Proceeding."

On Friday last at Mr. Daniel Kemper, a Shop-keeper at the Fly-Market, was sitting at the Door using his Penknife, a Fray happened in the Market, and as he was running to know the Occasion of it, in rising the Market Steps, stumbled and fell, and having the Knife still in his Hand, it unfortunately penetrated into his Breast near two Inches. The Wound was at first thought to be dangerous, but as timely Assistance was brought, he is now in a fair Way of Recovery.

PHILADELPHIA, March 23.

Kent County, Maryland, March 14, 1769.
Last Saturday departed this Life Mrs. ELIZABETH MONTGOMERY, Wife of the Rev. Mr. JOSEPH MONTGOMERY, in the 28th Year of her Age; a Gentlewoman who, by her obliging, cheerful, and modest Behaviour, and unaffected Piety, had rendered herself universally esteemed by all who had the Pleasure of an Acquaintance with her. Yesterday she was decently interred at the Presbyterian Church, in George Town, where a Sermon, suitable to the Occasion, was delivered by the Reverend Elihu Spencer, to a great Concourse of People.

Captain Craig, from St. Eustatia, advises, that the Sloop Margaret, Captain Hodge, bound to New-York from the West-Indies, after beating for some Time on the Coast, was obliged to bear away, and arrived at that Island, but was to sail again in a Day or two after him; that the Schooner Sally, Captain Lyell, and the Schooner St. John, Captain Stewart, both from New-York, were arrived there; and that Captains Shaw, and Snell, also from New-York, had touched there, and sailed again, the former for St. Croix, and the latter for Coracoa. On the 13th Instant, in Lat. 33, Long. 72: 30, he spoke a Sloop, Captain Allen, from Baltimore for South-Carolina, out 9 Days, and was very leaky, which obliged him to keep one Pump going.

Captain Martin, from Jamaica, last Thursday Evening, in Soundings, spoke a Ship from Glasgow for Virginia, out only three Weeks, but as the Wind blew very hard, he could not learn any particular News.

WHEREAS Elizabeth, my wife, by the advice of her relations and children, hath gone and left me, and continues to stay from me, though often invited to return; and as I have threatnings frequently hinted to me, that I will be sued for a separate maintenance to my wife, it puts me under the disagreeable necessity of thus publicly warning all persons not to trust or credit her on my account, as I will pay no debt of her contracting after this date; and if she returns to the duty of a wife, as she ought, I will always maintain her according to my ability.
